

Architect

The Architect Mechanical Pencil is designed for accuracy, balance and everyday reliability. With its clean, structured profile and solid aluminium alloy construction, it delivers a refined writing and drawing experience that professionals appreciate. Crafted for comfort and control, the Architect features a streamlined barrel that sits naturally in the hand, making it ideal for detailed work, note-taking and technical sketches. The smooth advance mechanism ensures consistent lead feed, while the integrated clip keeps it secure and within easy reach. The Architect also comes with replacement lead refills.
